DEPARTMENT OF MINES.

"MINERAL ACT."

NOTICE is hereby given that by Order in Council No. 104, approved the 1st day of February, 1944, His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor in Council has been pleased to approve the following regulation, pursuant to the provisions of the "Mineral Act," chapter 37 of the Statutes of British Columbia, 1938:—

That Charles Bacon of Pawhusa, in the State of Oklahoma, one of the United States of America, is the owner of the rights to all gold and silver in those Crown-granted mineral claims on Texada Island known as "Copper Queen Mineral Claim," Lot 40, registered in the Vancouver Land Registry Office as 314-87344I, 40211M, and "Cornell Mineral Claim," Lot 201, registered in said Land Registry Office as 314-87345I, 40212M:

And that the right to all base metals in said claims is vested in His Majesty in the right of the Province:

And that it has been represented that there are commercial values in copper and other base metals in close combination with the gold and silver deposits in said claims:

And that the said claims being "land lawfully occupied for mining purposes" are not open to location under the "Mineral Act" by reason of section 14 thereof:

And that the said Charles Bacon has petitioned for an order vesting in him the right to prospect for and mine all minerals in the said claims:

And that the said Charles Bacon has deposited $500 for each claim in lieu of work requirements:

And to recommend that, pursuant to section 170 of the "Mineral Act," and without further instrument of transfer, there be vested in the said Charles Bacon, in fee-simple as supplementary to his present rights in the two said claims, the right to all mineral deposits found in, upon, or under the lands described in the last Crown grants of the said mineral claims.

E. C. CARSON.

2451-fe10 Minister of Mines.

(14.) Generally to purchase, take on lease, hire, or otherwise acquire, hold, maintain, and operate any real and personal property, where-soever situated, and any rights and privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business, and to sell or otherwise dispose of and turn to account all or any part of the same:

(15.) To construct, maintain, and alter any buildings or works necessary or convenient for the purposes of the Company:

(16.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(17.) To acquire and carry on all or any part of the business or property and to undertake any liabilities of any person, firm, association, or company possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, or carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company, and to pay for any lands, business, property, rights, privileges, and concessions acquired or agreed to be acquired by the Company, and generally to satisfy any payment by or obligations of the Company by the issue of shares of this Company, or any other company, credited as fully or partly paid up, or of debentures or other securities of this or any other company, credited as fully or partly paid up:

(18.) To undertake and carry into effect all such financial trading or other operations or businesses in connection with the objects of the Company as the Company may think fit:

(19.) To subscribe for, take, acquire, hold, and sell stocks, shares, debentures, obligations, and securities of any company, or any supreme, municipal, public, or local board or authority:

(20.) To sell, lease, exchange, surrender, mortgage, or otherwise deal with the whole or the undertaking and property and rights of the Company, or any part thereof, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for any shares (whether credited as partly or fully paid up or otherwise), debentures, or securities of any other company, and to divide such part or parts as may be determined by the Company of the purchase moneys, whether in cash, shares, or other equivalent, which may at any time be received by the Company on a sale of or other dealing with the whole or part of the property, estate, and rights of the Company amongst the members of the Company by way of dividend or bonus in proportion to their shares, or to the amount paid up on their shares, or otherwise to deal with the same as the Company may determine:

(21.) To obtain any Act of Parliament or to apply to the executive authority for any order for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests:

(22.) To enter into any arrangement with any Government or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's interest, and to obtain from any such Government or authority, or take over from other persons or companies possession of the same, any rights, privileges, bonuses, or concessions which the Company may think desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(23.) To do all acts and things which may be necessary or desirable in connection with or to procure for the Company a legal recognition, domicile, and status in any colony, state, or territory in which any of its property, estate, effects, or rights may be situated or in which the Company may desire to carry on business, and to appoint local boards or committees, attorneys or agents, with such powers as the directors of the Company may determine, to represent the Company in any such colony, state, or territory:

(24.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company, and to secure the repayment of money and the interest thereon in such manner and on such terms as the directors may deem expedient, and in particular by the issue of bonds, debentures, or debenture stock charged upon the whole or any part of the undertaking, property, and assets of the Company, present or after acquired, including its uncalled capital:

(25.) To create, issue, make, sell, exchange, hypothecate, or otherwise deal with, draw, accept, endorse, discount, and negotiate perpetual or redeemable bonds, debentures, or debenture stock, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, or other negotiable or non-negotiable obligations:

(26.) To distribute any of the assets of the Company among its members in specie:

(27.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, registration, and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place or guaranteeing the placing of any shares in the Company's capital, or guaranteeing any debentures or other securities of the Company in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(28.) To do all or any of the matters aforesaid, either as principals or agents and either in the name of the Company or of any person or company as agent of the Company, and either alone or in concurrence with any person, company, Government, or other body or authority:

(29.) To do all such things as are in the opinion of the directors incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, and so that the word "company" throughout this clause shall be deemed to include any Government, body, authority, partnership, association, or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not, and whether registered or domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere:

(30.) The objects set forth in any subclause of this clause shall not, except when the context expressly so requires, be in anywise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other subclause or by the name of the Company. None of such subclauses or the objects therein specified or the powers thereby conferred shall be deemed subsidiary or auxiliary merely to the objects mentioned in the first subclause of this clause, but the Company shall have full power to exercise all or any of the powers conferred by any part of this clause in any part of the world, and notwithstanding that the business, undertaking, property, or acts proposed to be transacted, acquired, dealt with, or performed do not fall within the objects of the first subclause of this clause.

NOTICE is hereby given that "City Taxi (Nanaimo), Ltd.," was incorporated under the "Companies Act" on the 13th day of January, 1944.

The authorized capital of the Company is twenty-five thousand dollars, divided into twenty-five thousand shares of one dollar each.

The address of its registered office is 31 Bastion Street, Nanaimo, B.C.

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(a.) To acquire and take over as a going concern from Horace Plimley, of Victoria, British Columbia, the businesses heretofore carried on by William G. Plummer at the City of Nanaimo, and known as "City Taxi Co." or "Plummer's Taxi" or other designation, and all or any of the assets of the said business, except book accounts, as at January 1st, 1944, and without assuming any liability whatsoever for any liabilities of any kind of the said William G. Plummer or City Taxi Co.; and including the good-will of the said business, and all the real and (or) personal property held or used in connection therewith, and all the rights and contracts now held by the said William G. Plummer and the businesses heretofore carried on by him:

(b.) To carry on the general business of taxicab operators and the carriage of passengers by bus or by other motor or horse-drawn vehicle, either by private hire or as public or common carrier:

(c.) To operate bus lines as public or common carriers on regular routes, and to apply for and obtain charters therefor from any civic, municipal, or Provincial authority:

(d.) To let out motor-cars or vehicles of any kind on hire to be operated and driven by the hirer under the method usually known as "drive yourself":

(e.) To operate freight stages of all kinds by private contract, or to operate as common carriers, and to carry on the business of storage and warehousing in connection therewith, and to apply for and obtain charters therefor from any civic, municipal, or Provincial authority:

(f.) To maintain and operate repair-shops and storage facilities for motor-cars and vehicles of all kinds:

(g.) To carry on any other business which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with its business or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(h.) To acquire or undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which the Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of the Company:

(i.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing of profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in or about to carry on or engage in any business or transaction which the Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company; and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(j.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of the Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company:

(k.) To enter into any arrangements with any authorities (municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such authority any rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(l.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of the Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit the Company.

(d.) To establish and maintain and carry on a jobbing, commission, general agency business, and to carry on a business of manufacturers, manufacturers' agents, commission merchants, and general merchants, forwarders and distributors and warehousemen in all their respective branches:

(e.) To apply for, and obtain, purchase or otherwise acquire, and to sell or otherwise dispose of formulæ processes, methods and inventions, trade-marks, trade-names, patents, patent rights, copyrights, licences, royalties, and similar privileges and concessions, or any interest therein, and to finance and (or) otherwise assist any person, firm, or company having or claiming to have any such for the purpose of testing, perfecting, and acquiring the same:

(f.) To act as agents, commercial agents, brokers, merchants, or representatives in Canada, or in any foreign country, for Canadian or foreign commercial houses, and for other persons, firms, or corporations, and to buy, sell, or otherwise dispose of, hold, own, manufacture, produce, export, and import, and deal in, both wholesale and retail, either as principals or agents, and upon commission, consignment, or otherwise, or as jobbers or brokers, goods, wares, products, and merchandise of any kind and nature whatsoever:

(g.) To move, transport, erect, assemble, and install machinery, tools, equipment, and buildings of every description:

(h.) To carry on the business of general contractors, and to enter into any contract for constructing, executing, owning, and carrying on the business of a general construction company, and contractors for the construction of works, public and private, and buildings of all kinds, and parts thereof, and to act as agents for either persons or corporations carrying on a similar business:

(i.) To allot, credited as fully paid or partly paid up, the shares, bonds, or debentures, or debenture stock of the Company as the whole or part of the purchase price for any property or goods acquired by the Company or for services or other valuable consideration:

(j.) To make gifts and donations to any person, firm, or corporation for any purpose whatsoever, whether such person, firm, or corporation be a member of this Company or not:

(k.) To buy, sell, exchange, lease, or otherwise deal in real estate, in immovable property, and generally to carry on the business of real-estate agents in all its branches.

PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION.

"PUBLIC UTILITIES ACT."

PURSUANT to the provisions of the "Public Utilities Act," the following regulations were adopted by the Public Utilities Commission on the 25th day of January, 1944, and approved by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council on the 1st day of February, 1944, by Order in Council No. 110:—

REGULATIONS RESPECTING TRANSPORTATION.
("Public Utilities Act.")PART I.
GENERAL.

1.1 Interpretation.

In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires:—

"Transportation utility" or "utility" means a public utility which owns or operates in the Province equipment or facilities for the transportation of persons or property over a railway, street-railway, or tramway for the public for compensation, or by motor-vehicles operating as part of or connected with such railway, street-railway, or tramway:

"Motor-vehicle" or "vehicle" means any motor-vehicle operating for the purpose of transporting passengers or freight as part of or connected with a railway, street-railway, or tramway, including any attached trailer; excepting vehicles running only upon rails or tracks:

"Transportation route" means any route upon which transportation is regularly offered to the public by a transportation utility:

"Record" includes any tariff, time schedule, map, profile, contract, report, document, account, book, or other statement:

"Passenger-vehicle" means any motor-vehicle used for the carrying of passengers:

"Car" shall mean any vehicle running only upon rails or tracks and used for the carrying of passengers or freight.

1.2 Reference.

These regulations may be referred to as the "Regulations respecting Transportation ('Public Utilities Act').".

1.3 Repeal.

Clause (a) of paragraph 1 of Regulation 1 of the Public Utilities Commission is hereby rescinded. Regulations 6, 8, and 9 of the Public Utilities Commission are also rescinded.

1.4 Filing in Duplicate.

Every record required to be filed with the Commission shall, unless otherwise specified, be filed in duplicate at the offices of the Commission in Victoria.

PART II.
REPORTS.

2.1 General Report.

Every transportation utility shall file with the Commission the following records:—

- (a.) The name and address of the utility.
- (b.) All agreements with municipalities respecting any special rights or restrictions in connection with transportation within the municipalities.
- (c.) Maps showing all the routes on which motor-vehicles are regularly operated by the utility and showing also all the lines of railway, street-railway, or tramway of the utility.

(d.) The following particulars of each motor-vehicle:—

Name of registered owner (as per Motor-vehicle licence).

Registration number (under "Motor-vehicle Act").

Current licence number (under "Motor-vehicle Act").

Make . . . Year . . .

Engine number.

Total wheel-base.

Weight (unloaded).

General description (e.g. if a passenger-vehicle, whether "street-car" type, trailer type, or standard type).

(e.) The following additional particulars of each motor-vehicle used for the carrying of passengers:—

Kind of body.

Number of passengers for whom fixed seats are provided.

Number, description, and location of movable, let-down, or "jump" seats.

Number of doors and where located.

Interior dimensions.

2.2 Alteration of Agreements.

Where any change in the name or address of a utility is made, or where any agreement referred to in clause (b) of paragraph 2.1 is altered, the utility shall immediately file a report with the Commission setting out the alteration.

2.3 Alteration of Routes.

No transportation routes shall be extended, reduced, or otherwise altered, whether under a certificate of public convenience and necessity, an order of the Commission, or otherwise, unless full particulars of the alteration are first filed with the Commission showing the alterations required to be made on the maps filed pursuant to paragraph 2.1.

2.4 Alteration of Motor-vehicles.

Any change in the particulars of any motor-vehicle as reported pursuant to paragraph 2.1 shall be immediately reported to the Commission.

2.5 Monthly Reports.

Every transportation utility shall file with the Commission each month a report for the preceding month showing the following:—

(a.) Particulars of every accident arising out of the operation of any motor-vehicle or car of the utility which resulted in property damage exceeding $150 or in serious injury or fatality to any person.

(b.) Particulars of all serious or prolonged interruptions of service.

(c.) Number of miles operated by each motor-vehicle operated by the utility and the registration number of each such vehicle.

Information furnished pursuant to clauses (a), (b), and (c) of this paragraph will not be made public by the Commission except in connection with proceedings commenced by the Commission.

PART III.

TARIFFS.

3.1 Filing of Passenger and Freight Tariffs.

Every transportation utility shall file with the Commission tariffs covering all its rates for the transportation of passengers and freight. The tariffs shall state clearly and explicitly the passenger fares and freight rates to be charged, together with the following matters:—

(a.) Name of utility.

(b.) Operating name (if different from name of utility).

(c.) Serial number of tariff.

(d.) Whether public passenger tariff, charter tariff, sightseeing tariff, or freight tariff.

(e.) Date issued and by whom issued and his title and address.

(f.) Explanation of abbreviations, if any.

(g.) All rules and regulations which govern or in any way affect the passenger fares or the freight rates or the value of the service to be rendered.

3.11 In the case of all tariffs the following matters shall also be shown:—

(a.) Termini between which each section of the tariff applies and route traversed.

(b.) List of depots and local agents.

(c.) Names of stations to which the respective rates apply, the distance in miles from terminus to each station, the one-way and return adult fares definitely stated in cents or dollars and cents per passenger from terminus to each station, and the intermediate fares between stations.

(d.) A clause substantially as follows (except where flat rates are in effect):—
"Rates from or to intermediate points not named herein will be the same as the rates from or to the next more distant point named."

3.12 All rates stated in a passenger tariff for charter trips shall, unless the tariff otherwise provides, include all expenses incidental to the operation of the chartered vehicle or car, such as the provision of a driver or motorman and other necessary attendants, and payment of road and bridge tolls.

3.13 Every sightseeing passenger tariff shall show, in addition to the matters specified in paragraph 3.1, the termini between which each section of the tariff applies and the route traversed.

3.2 Publication of Tariffs.

Every transportation utility shall publish and keep open for inspection of the public at its principal office copies of all its passenger and freight tariffs, and at all offices and other places where tickets are sold extracts from the tariffs giving adequate information as to the rates in effect on the routes in respect of which the tickets are sold.

3.3 Amendment of Tariffs.

(1.) Special passenger and freight tariffs shall be filed by the company with the Commission, and every such tariff shall specify the date of the issue thereof and the date on which it is intended to take effect; and shall be accompanied by a statement of the reasons therefor.

(2.) When any such special passenger or freight tariff reduces any toll previously authorized to be charged under this Act, the company shall file such tariff with the Commission, and shall, for three days previous to the date on which such tariff is intended to take effect, deposit and keep on file in a convenient place, open for the inspection of the public during office hours, a copy of such tariff at every agency station or office of the company where passengers or freight are received, or to which passengers or freight are to be carried thereunder, and also post up in a prominent place at each such office or station a notice in large type directing public attention to the place in such office or station where such tariff is so kept on file: Provided that the Commission may prescribe any other or additional method of publication of such tariff during the period aforesaid.

(3.) When any such special passenger or freight tariff advances any toll previously authorized to be charged under this Act, the company shall in like manner file and publish such tariff fifteen days previously to the date on which such tariff is intended to take effect.

(4.) Upon any such special passenger or freight tariff being so filed, and in accordance with the terms thereof, the company shall, until such tariff is superseded or is disallowed by the Commission, charge the toll or tolls as specified therein; and such special passenger or freight tariff shall supersede any preceding tariff or tariffs, or any portion or portions thereof, so far as it reduces or advances the tolls therein.

PART IV.

TIME SCHEDULES.

4.1 Filing of Time Schedules.

Every transportation utility shall file with the Commission copies of the time schedules in effect on each transportation route, which shall be serially numbered and shall show the following matters:—

- (a.) Name of utility.
- (b.) Operating name (if different from name of utility).
- (c.) Serial number of schedule.
- (d.) Whether "Passenger" or "Freight" schedule.
- (e.) Termini between which schedule applies.
- (f.) Route traversed.
- (g.) Date issued and by whom issued and his title and address.
- (h.) The time of departure from and arrival at all termini.
- (i.) The time of departure from and arrival at intermediate points if the distance between termini is greater than 5 miles.
- (j.) The distance from terminus to all points shown in schedule.
- (k.) Days of the week on which service is rendered.

4.2 Amendment of Time Schedules.

Where any time schedule is to be amended, the utility shall prepare a new time schedule and submit it to the Commission for filing, together with a statement of the reasons for the amendment. In addition to the matters set out in paragraph 4.1, the new time schedule shall show the number of the schedule cancelled (or supplemented, if the new schedule is of a temporary nature) and the proposed effective date. If the new schedule is of a temporary nature, and is filed as a supplementary schedule, the date of expiry shall also be shown, and after that date the supplementary schedule shall be deemed to be cancelled. Temporary schedules effective for less than three days which provide for additional service or for emergency reduction of service, and which comply with these regulations, will be filed immediately on receipt thereof by the Commission, unless otherwise ordered. Other schedules will be filed fifteen days after receipt thereof by the Commission if they comply with these regulations, unless otherwise ordered.

4.21 Except in the case of a temporary schedule effective for less than three days, or where otherwise ordered by the Commission, no amendment of time schedule which alters any time of arrival or departure shall be filed unless fifteen days' notice of the proposed amendment is given to the public, and a report filed with the Commission showing the form of the notice and the date on which and the manner in which it was given. The notice shall show that the amendment is subject to the consent of the Public Utilities Commission.

4.3 Adherence to Time Schedules.

Additional vehicles and cars operated at peak traffic periods to relieve overcrowding on the regular vehicles and cars shall be operated with due regard to the safety and convenience of the public, but need not be operated strictly in accordance with the time schedules of the utility.

4.31 Except as provided in paragraph 4.3 and subject to reasonable delays, every transportation utility shall give service in accordance with the time schedules filed and published as provided in these regulations.

4.4 Publication of Time Schedules.

Every transportation utility shall publish and keep open for inspection of the public at its principal office copies of all its current time schedules, and at all offices and other places where tickets are sold, copies of all the current time schedules for the routes in respect of which the tickets are sold.

4.5 The provisions of 4.1, 4.2, 4.21, 4.3, 4.31, and 4.4 of Part IV. shall not apply to the operation of street-railways or motor-vehicles operated as part of or connected with street-railways, but every transportation utility shall furnish the Commission with a copy of the current time-tables of such operation as the transportation utility may issue from time to time.

PART V.

OPERATION—GENERAL.

5.1 Identification.

All passenger-vehicles and cars operated by a transportation utility shall have a sign at the front with letters not less than three inches in height designating the route over which or the destination to which the vehicle is being operated. The sign shall be illuminated at night.

5.2 Mechanical and Sanitary Conditions of Vehicles and Cars.

Every transportation utility shall keep its passenger-vehicles and cars clean and sanitary and in a safe operating condition, and, to insure this, shall have adequate and frequent inspections made of each vehicle and car. No vehicle or car shall be operated for the transportation of passengers which is known by any officer or employee of the utility to have some defect or deficiency which might make operation dangerous. Where any such defect or deficiency is discovered while the vehicle or car is in operation, the vehicle or car shall be brought to a stop and shall not proceed with passengers until the defect or deficiency which might make operation dangerous is remedied.

5.3 Seating Arrangement and Loading.

The seating arrangement and loading of every vehicle and car shall be such that the driver's view ahead and to the right and left is not obscured in any way, and that he has at all times free movement of his arms and legs and ready access to emergency equipment.

5.4 Baggage and Express.

The amount of baggage or express that may be carried on a passenger-vehicle or car shall not be greater than can safely or conveniently be carried without undue discomfort or annoyance to the passengers and must not be placed so as to prevent free and ready access to the exit and entrance of passengers.

5.41 Inflammables.

No transportation utility shall knowingly carry or permit to be carried in any vehicle or car in which passengers are being carried any explosives, chemicals, or inflammables other than those necessary for the operation of the vehicle or car if the safety of the passengers might thereby be prejudiced.

5.5 Lighting.

Every passenger-vehicle or car having a placed top, or its top up, shall have a light or lights within the vehicle or car so arranged as to light up the whole of the interior, except that portion occupied by the driver or motor-man. Adequate illumination shall be provided in the vehicle or car at all times between the hours of sunset and sunrise when the vehicle is occupied by passengers.

5.6 Passengers entering and leaving.

Passengers shall be allowed to enter or leave a vehicle or car at the right-hand side only, except on single-track interurban lines, when passengers shall be permitted to enter or leave a car at either side, and shall not be permitted to enter or leave the vehicle or car while it is in motion.

5.7 Refusal to transport Passengers.

A transportation utility may refuse to carry any person who is sick, intoxicated, boisterous, disorderly, or profane, or who for any other reason may be offensive or dangerous to the other passengers or their property.

5.8 Offensive Condition or Conduct of Employees.

No driver, motorman, ticket-taker, or other official or employee of the utility shall, while on duty in the vehicle or car with any passenger, smoke any tobacco or other substance, nor shall he go on duty while under the influence of, nor drink while on duty, any alcoholic beverage or liquor.

PART VI.OPERATION OF MOTOR-VEHICLES.*6.1 Identification.

All motor-vehicles operated by a transportation utility shall be clearly marked with the name of the utility.

6.11 Emergency Door.

Where a motor-vehicle is equipped with an emergency door, a sign shall be provided inside the vehicle, on or adjacent to the said door, on which shall be printed in letters clearly legible and not less than one and one-half inches in height the words "EMERGENCY DOOR."

6.12 Exhaust Heaters prohibited.

No passenger-vehicle shall be equipped with an engine-exhaust heater.

6.13 Emergency Equipment.

Every transportation utility shall supply each passenger-vehicle with one fire-extinguisher of the pump or pressure non-freezing type of not less than one-quart capacity, securely mounted on a bracket, in the forward portion of the vehicle near the entrance door and easily accessible to the driver; also one axe secured in such manner and place within the vehicle as to be readily accessible for use in an emergency.

6.14 Standards of Construction.

The standards of construction set out in Schedule A are hereby prescribed as the standards to be observed for all passenger-vehicles having a carrying capacity of more than twelve passengers proposed to be put into operation by a transportation utility (referred to in this paragraph as "new vehicles"). No passengers shall be carried on a new vehicle unless a certificate is first obtained from an inspector authorized by the Commission for this purpose and filed with the Commission, showing that the standards of construction have been sufficiently complied with. It shall be the duty of the utility to bring its other passenger-vehicles into conformity with the standards without delay, to the extent that this can be done without undue inconvenience and expense.

6.2 Fuelling.

No vehicle shall be fuelled while the engine is running, or in the presence of any open flame, and when the vehicle is being fuelled the nozzle of the fuel-hose shall be kept in contact with the intake of the fuel-tank throughout the fuelling process. The opening through which the tank of a passenger-vehicle is filled shall be outside the body of the vehicle and shall be ventilated.

6.3 Standing Passengers.

No passengers shall be carried on any motor-vehicle in excess of the number for which adequate seating accommodation is provided, except to the extent authorized by a certificate issued by or on behalf of the Commission for the carrying of standing passengers. Where such a certificate is desired, a written application shall be made therefor and filed with the Commission in triplicate, substantially in the form set out in Schedule B. Every such certificate shall be posted up in the front of the vehicle affected so as to be visible to the passengers.

quate seating accommodation is provided, except to the extent authorized by a certificate issued by or on behalf of the Commission for the carrying of standing passengers. Where such a certificate is desired, a written application shall be made therefor and filed with the Commission in triplicate, substantially in the form set out in Schedule B. Every such certificate shall be posted up in the front of the vehicle affected so as to be visible to the passengers.

6.4 Financial Responsibility.

Every transportation utility shall give proof of financial responsibility in respect of each passenger motor-vehicle in the amounts and in the manner provided in the "Motor-vehicle Act," except that in the case of a vehicle having seating capacity for more than twelve passengers proof as against loss or damage resulting from bodily injury to or the death of two or more persons in any one accident shall be in an amount not less than twenty thousand dollars (exclusive of interest and costs). The utility shall also give proof of financial responsibility to the Commission, which may be in the form of a certificate of the Commissioner of Provincial Police, or an officer of the Provincial Police designated by him, showing particulars of the proof filed with him. No motor-vehicle shall be operated for the carrying of passengers unless the proof of financial responsibility hereby required to be given is maintained.

The above regulations are hereby adopted by the Public Utilities Commission as the Regulations respecting Transportation made pursuant to the provisions of the "Public Utilities Act."

SCHEDULE A.

(Referred to in Paragraph 6.14.)

STANDARDS FOR PASSENGER-VEHICLE CONSTRUCTIONS, PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

Prescribed by Paragraph 6.14 of the Regulations respecting Transportation ("Public Utilities Act").

1. CHASSIS.

- (a.) The gross weight of a fully loaded passenger-vehicle must not exceed the manufacturer's gross allowable weight as fixed by the official in charge of the engineering department of the manufacturer of the chassis. This shall be interpreted as the advertised maximum gross vehicle weight as shown in the manufacturer's regular advertising literature describing such chassis. Gross vehicle weight shall mean the actual weight of the chassis complete, plus the weight of the body, plus the weight of the driver and the weight of the passengers at 150 lb. each, and any other load. The wheel-base of any chassis as originally supplied by the manufacturer must not be altered in any manner. (See also paragraph 22.)
- (b.) The chassis shall be of the proper wheel-base to accommodate the body and load with the proper and accepted weight distribution to provide complete and safe control of the vehicle under all road conditions.
- (c.) Where the vehicle is so constructed that the chassis and body are an integral unit, the licensee will be required to furnish to the Commission a certificate from the manufacturer of the vehicle, showing the safe carrying capacity of the vehicle in pounds.

The number of passengers, including driver, which may be carried on the vehicle shall not exceed the safe carrying capacity of the vehicle, the weight of passengers and driver being taken at 150 lb. each, but in no case shall the maximum number of passengers to be carried exceed the safe seating and standing capacity of the vehicle.

2. EXHAUST.

The motor exhaust shall be carried to a point beyond the rear of the body skirt in an air-tight steel tube and muffler, and not beyond the rear bumper, except that where this is not feasible such exhaust shall be approved by the Commission. Where motor-vehicles are to be used in continuous urban service stack type exhaust shall be used whenever practical.

3. BODIES.

Must be of accepted standard material and shall be strong enough to withstand heavy impact through accident or collision and give the maximum protection to passengers.

(a.) Seating: All passenger-carrying vehicles shall be so constructed as to afford normal and comfortable seating accommodation for the seated passengers and all such seats shall be fully upholstered. The minimum requirements for seat centres (forward facing seats) shall be not less than 26 inches (this measurement to be taken on a horizontal line from the extreme top back of one seat to the extreme top back of the next seat). The seating arrangement of every passenger-vehicle shall be such that when all seats are fully occupied, the driver's view ahead or to the right- or left-hand sides is not obscured in any way, and that the driver at all times has free movement of his arms and legs and ready access to emergency equipment.

(b.) Movable Seats: No movable "let-down" or "jump" seats shall be installed without first obtaining the approval of the Public Utilities Commission.

(d.) Emergency Door Passage: An unobstructed access satisfactory to the Commission shall lead to the emergency door.

4. INTERIOR HEIGHT.

Interior clearance height shall not be less than 68 inches as measured at longitudinal centre line at the entrance door. Motor-vehicles designed for standing passengers shall have a minimum interior clearance height of 74 inches in that portion to be occupied by standing passengers. Suitable hand-holds, straps, rails, etc., shall be provided in order to afford adequate support for standing passengers.

5. FLOOR.

Shall be so constructed that exhaust gases, moisture, etc., cannot enter the vehicle through the same and shall be slip-proof. All closures between the vehicle body and the engine compartment shall be fitted with gas-tight gaskets, and pedal openings, etc., shall be closed by bellows-type gas-tight boots or the equivalent.

Entrance Door:

(1.) To be located at right side near the front of the vehicle, and shall be manually controlled by the driver; provided that such entrance door may be air or vacuum operated and, if so, the control system shall have a reserve tank or auxiliary control.

(2.) Shall have a minimum horizontal clearance opening of 24 inches and a vertical clearance of the maximum height in accordance with the body construction as measured from top of lower entrance step to roof.

(3.) A vertical hand-grip shall be provided at the rear of the entrance step well. Location shall not restrict passageway to less than 24 inches.

(4.) A safety bar or its equivalent shall be installed between the vertical hand-grip and the body wall at a height of approximately 30 inches.

(5.) A suitable light shall be provided and located so as adequately to illuminate the entrance step or steps of the vehicle.

Emergency Door:

(2.) Shall have a minimum horizontal clearance of 24 inches and the height shall be the maximum as permitted by body construction, provided that such door shall be adequate to allow the unrestricted exit of any passenger carried.

(3.) Shall be equipped with a fastening device operated by a lever or hand-levers which afford instant and easy release, but designed to offer protection against accidental release. Control from the driver's seat shall not be permitted.

(4.) Shall be hinged on its forward vertical edge only.

7. BAGGAGE AND EXPRESS.

If vehicle is to be used for transportation of baggage or express delivered into the custody of the utility company, adequate space must be provided to accommodate same. This space not to interfere with the free and ready entering or leaving such vehicle and shall be so constructed as to prevent baggage falling on to or against any passenger. All passenger baggage shall be protected from dust and moisture.

8. SIGNS.

Paragraph 5.1 of the Regulations respecting Transportation ("Public Utilities Act") provides as follows:—

"All passenger-vehicles and cars operated by a transportation utility shall have a sign at the front with letters not less than three inches in height designating the route over which or the destination to which the vehicle is being operated. The sign shall be illuminated at night."

Paragraph 6.1 of the Regulations respecting Transportation ("Public Utilities Act") provides as follows:—

"All motor-vehicles operated by a transportation utility shall be clearly marked with the name of the utility."

Paragraph 6.11 of the Regulations respecting Transportation ("Public Utilities Act") provides as follows:—

"Where a motor-vehicle is equipped with an emergency door, a sign shall be provided inside the vehicle, on or adjacent to the said door, on which shall be printed in letters clearly legible and not less than one and one-half inches in height the words 'EMERGENCY DOOR.'"

9. VENTILATION.

All bodies shall be equipped with a suitably controlled ventilating system of sufficient capacity to maintain the proper quantity of air under operating conditions without the opening of windows, except in extremely warm weather. Toe-boards, dash panels, and the engine-covers must exclude all motor fumes and gases.

10. INTERIOR LIGHTS.

Every passenger-vehicle having a placed top, or its top up, shall have maintained a light or lights within the vehicle so arranged as to light up the whole of the interior of the vehicle, except that portion occupied by the driver.

11. GLASS.

The windshield, driver's side window, and the window at the rear of the motor-vehicle passenger-carrying section shall be equipped with an approved type of laminated safety glass. Glass used in all passenger entrance and (or) exit doors of motor-vehicle to be of safety type. No unpolished or unground edges shall be accessible to passengers. Glass of wire-mesh type shall not be used in any part of the body. The windshield shall be sloped slightly to prevent glare from other lights, large enough to permit the driver to have a clear view of the road, and the quality of glass must be such as to prevent distortion of view from any direction.

12. FUEL-CONTAINERS.

No part of any fuel tank or container or intake pipe shall project beyond the sides of the motor-vehicle. The intake pipe of any fuel tank or container or any such container itself shall not be located within or above the passenger-carrying portion of any vehicle.

13. TOOL COMPARTMENT.

All equipment such as tools, tire-chains, etc., shall be contained in a compartment provided for such equipment.

14. FIRE-EXTINGUISHER.

Each vehicle shall be equipped with a fire-extinguisher of the pump or pressure (non-freezing) type of not less than one-quart capacity, which shall be located in the forward end of the vehicle, accessible to the driver and near the entrance door, which extinguisher shall be properly filled and securely mounted in the bracket provided for such extinguisher; also one axe secured in such manner and place within the vehicle as to be readily accessible for use in an emergency.

15. SIGNAL DEVICES.

Regulation 3, clause (j), of the regulations under the "Motor-vehicle Act" provides as follows:—

"In every case where the load or body of a motor-vehicle extends more than 24 inches to the left of the centre of the steering-wheel the motor-vehicle shall be equipped with an approved signalling device; and no person shall drive, operate, or use such motor-vehicle on a highway unless it is so equipped."

16. STOP SIGNAL.

The vehicle shall be equipped with at least one stop signal light. This light must display the word "STOP" and be of at least 4 inches in diameter.

17. REFLEX REFLECTORS.

There shall be two reflex reflectors mounted on the right and left corners of the rear of the vehicle not more than 36 inches from road surface, so located as to reflect the rays of light from lights of overtaking vehicles. These reflectors must be of a type approved by the Commissioner, B.C. Police, under Regulation 3 (d) of the "Motor-vehicle Act," and shall not be less than 4 inches in diameter.

18. WINDSHIELD WIPERS.

The vehicle shall be equipped with two complete units of the electric, vacuum, or pressure-operated type.

19. REAR-VISION MIRRORS.

The vehicle shall be equipped with one interior mirror, located so that a complete view of the interior of the vehicle as well as a view through the rear windows can be had by the driver. An exterior rear mirror of ample size shall be installed on the left front corner of the vehicle to afford the driver a view of the highway along the left side and to the rear of the vehicle.

20. DEFROSTING DEVICE.

If the vehicle is to be operated under conditions such that ice or frost would be likely to collect on the windshield, it shall be equipped with a device or other means for preventing or removing such ice or frost.

21. SPEEDOMETER.

The vehicle shall be equipped with one speedometer which shall be maintained in effective working order and located at a convenient place on the instrument board of the vehicle.

22. GROSS WEIGHT; TIRE AND AXLE LOADS; DIMENSIONS.

The total gross weight, axle loads and tire loads, and the over-all length, height, and width of the vehicle shall not exceed the limits prescribed by the regulations pursuant to section 34 of the "Highway Act."

23. BRAKES, HEAD-LIGHTS, ETC.

The vehicle and its equipment shall comply in all respects with the provisions of the regulations pursuant to the "Motor-vehicle Act."

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

(a.) A printed copy of such Bill:

(b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House:

(c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¾ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.
